Please make these available to your senior high school students at your school who will graduate this spring and who permanently reside in the Gibbon Fire Department district. The application form itself explains the eligibility. If you need more applications, go ahead and make copies.

Members of the Gibbon Lions Club feel that since this program was started over sixteen years ago, it has been very successful.

Completed applications must be returned to the Gibbon Lions Scholarship Committee by April 7, 2017. Please send to:

Gibbon Lions Club
P.O. Box 435
Gibbon, Minnesota 55335

As in the past years, the award money will be presented to the scholarship recipients after the satisfactory completion of their first quarter or semester.

If you have any questions you can contact either Dr. Taggatz at 507-834-6664 or Chuck Southworth at 507-834-6390.

Thank you for taking the time to inform the students of a great opportunity.
