

“Looking forward to...”

I’m looking forward to... I can hardly wait for... I’m really excited about... We tend to look forward to positive events in our lives. Whether it’s a family activity, a vacation, or some other special time in our lives, half of the joy we get from the event comes from the anticipation. In the coming weeks, we get to look forward to the celebration of the birth of our Savior. It’s a wonderful opportunity to consider how blessed we are and what wonderful things God has done for us—even though we deserve none of it. As we go through Advent and prepare for Christmas, may your preparations and meditation on the coming of our Savior be blessed. From the MVL family: faculty, staff, students, parents and Board of Directors—have a blessed Christmas!

Spirit of MVL Events—2014

The messages provided by Pastors Nathan Nass and Dave Bendix for the Spirit of MVL Events, first at the Recognition Event and later the Gala, spoke of willingness and opportunity. The Spirit of MVL recipients, found their own personal ways to willingly serve the Lord as they supported MVL. Then later, the Gala provided an opportunity to financially support MVL. The Board members, faculty, and staff appreciate all the support by the sharing of your blessings from God, remembering MVL in your prayers, and speaking of the blessings of fulltime Christian Education provided at MVL. God uses us all to bless MVL.

Pastor David Bendix

Donna Luepke, Bob Hinnenthal, and Jan Fredrich
